Saddlebrook Golf Club

Saddlebrook Golf Club

Saddlebrook Golf Club, located just north of downtown Indianapolis is a mid level daily fee golf course designed by Bob Thompson and opened for play in 1992. The course is well liked by local golfers and is considered a fair but challenging layout. The clubhouse and bar are easy to operate and maintain. Ownership has recently improved the clubhouse and has continually worked to improve the playability of the golf course.

A new owner with fresh enthusiasm should be able to improve rounds and food and beverage revenue. Saddlebrook is ideal for a first time buyer or for a regional operator looking to add to their portfolio.
